Fourth race, 6½ furlongs—Eclipse 116, Marie Lovell 109, Jim McLaughlin Holyport 105, Flattery 102. Fifth race, 1 mile—Chief Justice 107, John Winkle 108, Elmstone 108, De-visee 108, Jubal 105, Prince Klamath 104: Oporto 104. Sixth race, 5 furlongs—Grand Prix 118 Home Run 117, Fidget 109, West-ern Star 105, Despair 103, The Moor 183 Meadows 102, Caraccas 102, Billy Boy 105, Benjamin 105, Halcyon 100, Duke of Gloucester 99.

The meeting of outlawed horse owners at St. Asaph yesterday was largely attended, and it was decided to effect a permanent protective organization.
Daly was chosen president; M. J. Underwood, vice president; G. R. Tompkins, secretary; W. McMahon, corresponding secretary, and V. Hollar, treasurer. A committee was apof the two tracks and endeavor to arrange some plan to protect the owners now racing at the two tracks from being obliged to compete with horses from the Jockey Club tracks. Abe Garson is the only owner not in sympathy with the movement.

The St. Asaph officials were not pre pared to give the committee a hearing yesterday, but will do so on Friday. The committee called on the Old Dominion officials last night and submitted their views. They claim that within the next week or two a number of stables will return here from the Jockey Club tracks, and also from Canada at the close of the Toronto meeting, and they do not consider that they should obliged to compete against orses of this class.

The Old Dominion officials gave them very little encouragement, but will not render any decision until they obtain the views of the St. Asaph people. They are of the opinion that it will be impossible to discriminate against the horses from the big tracks, and they also consider that their own interests lie in securing the best possible class of horses to race at their

While this meeting was in progress another, headed by Mr. Cauliflower, was held among the bookies, and they agreed not to lay more than 20 to 1 against any horse to win. This agreement soon fell through, however.

The ruled-off horses, Tuscan, Gimme, Summertime and Cadiz, which it was given out were purchased by Mr. Rozier Brown to satisfy a claim against Doc. Streett for a feed bill, will not be allowed to start at St. Asaph, though an effort will be made to enter them next

During the races at St. Asaph yesterday Jockey Donovan was ruled off for a very bad-looking ride on Torraine before he had time to dismount, and after the last race the same fate was meted out to the horse's trainer, a man named Flagler. Tom Dwyer, Torraine's owner, is in Gloucester, and upon his return an investigation will be held to determine whether he was in any way connected with the fraud. The investigation into the running of Billy Boy a week ago was concluded, and Jockey Dorsey was ruled off.

MEMORIAL DAY .- For the sixth time the monument to the Confederate dead of this city at the intersection of Washington and Prince streets will be deco-rated to-morrow with garlands of flowers, and from present indicatious me-teorologically it will be a pleasant May day—such an one as thirty-four years ago (and on a Friday, too,) when Alexandria's quoto to the Southern army gathered at the same spot and bade hasty adieux to homes and friends for four long years. Some never re-turned. Destined to fall amid the clash of war, they died as soldiers battling for a cause though lost still held in fond remembrance by those who survived. Every preparation has been made to render the occasion as happy and interesting as those of former years. Memoral Day has become one of Alexandria's institutions; it is a gala day and one fondly anticipated by many. It has become the parade day for Alexaudria, and has in a measure superseded all others. It occurs at a pleasant season of the year when there can be a general turnout.

The programme for to-morrow's exercises is as follows:

In the morning committees of Lee Camp and of the Ladies' Auxilary will visit the cemeteries and strew flowers on the graves of the Confederate soldiers buried there. A committee will also decorate the Confederate monument and also the Confederate mound lodgers were at the station house. diers buried there. A committee will also decorate the Confederate monuin Christ Church yard.

In the evening the regular exercises will be held. The procession will form Cameron, and will move promptly at drams, shal: Move to Queen, to Royal, to Princess, to Fairfax, to Duke, to Co-lumbus, to Prince, to Alfred, to King,

The services at the monument will be as follows: Hymn, How Firm a church Rev. P. P. Phillips will preach foundation; prayer by Rev. H. Suter; music; introduction of orator by Capt. Thos Perry; oration by Rev. W. F. Dunaway; hymn, America; music; hymn, Home of My Soul; strewfug of flowers.

The services at the monument will strength as the latter church Rev. P. P. Phillips will preach a special sermon to Old Dominion Communic; introduction of orator by Capt. This oration will attend in uniform. The three chapters of St. Andrew Brotherhood will also be present.

cises will be as follows: Hymn, Abide with Me; music by Third Artillery band, during which the mound will be strewn with flowers; hymn, Nearer, My God, to Thee; taps. The parade will then be dismissed.

The choir which will sing is composed of members of several of the church choirs and will be led by Mr. H. K. Field. The male quartette from Washington will not be present, having declined the invitation.

The members of the ladies' auxiliary to R. E. Lee Camp, are requested to meet at Armory Hall to-morrow morning, at nine o'clock, for the purpose of assisting in the services of Memorial Day. Friends who wish to assist in this "labor of love" by con-tributing flowers to decorate the Confederate Monument and graves of Confederate soldiers, are invited to send their floral offerings to Armory Hall on Friday. The hall will be open for the reception of flowers at 7 o'clock.

THE ELECTION.—If a large vote is not polled to-day it will be no fault of the clerk of the weather. The sky has been clear and the temperature mild, in marked contrast to that prevailing a month ago, when the primary election was held, the weather being clear but uncomfortably warm on that occasion. The affair, however, has dragged its slow length along all day, and the scenes around the voting precincts have been generally devoid of animation. The democratic committee, however, have a scidential and the scidential developments. have worked assiduously all day to bring out a large vote. Chairman Sweeney and his coadjutors began their active work last night and have been untiring throughout the day. There has been no serious apprehension as to the complete success of the demo-cratic ticket, although the champions of the independent candidate for Mayor (mostly in the Fourth ward) pretend to be hopeful. In that ward there are also two white and one colored men in-dependent candidates for Council, but dependent candidates for Council, but it is generally believed that the regular democratic ticket in that ward will be elected. In the Second ward there is an animated contest for Alderman for the short term between Messrs. Theophilus Ballenger and Louis Krafft both democrats, and the friends of each claim that their candidate will be elected. The bar rooms have been closed and the number of drunken men in con-sequence was few. The following was
